Wedding Ceremony Policies:

Wristbands: All guests attending Virginia Zoo weddings must wear a Virginia Zoo entry wristband and must remain visible at all times. Wristbands may be distributed prior to the wedding date or at the Zoo entrance upon arrival. The booking party is responsible for wristband distribution in either case.

Chairs: Please be aware that it is the responsibility of the client to move chairs from ceremony to reception venues if both events take place on Zoo grounds. Zoo event staff highly recommend renting two sets of chairs, one for each event.

Candles: Open flamed candles are prohibited with the exception of a unity candle for the ceremony.

Decorations: To protect the safety of our animals, all decorations for wedding ceremonies & receptions must be approved by the Virginia Zoo Event Coordinator. If items are not presented for approval, the Virginia Zoo reserves the right to remove items that may potentially pose an animal safety risk.

Flower petals: While floral arrangements are allowed to be placed stagnant on tables the distribution of flower petals is prohibited.

Additional structures: All additional wedding structures must be presented for approval. Please remember that vehicles are not permitted inside the Zoo unless previously approved by the Event Coordinator.

Fountains: The Virginia Zoo and the City of Norfolk cannot guarantee that the Entry Plaza fountains will be on at any point in time.

Music: Access to power is available at all of our wedding ceremony & reception locations. The Virginia Zoo Event Coordinator can provide more information on accessing power and music volume levels.

Rehearsals: Rehearsal date and time must be approved by the Virginia Zoo Event Coordinator. Rehearsals occurring after 5:00 p.m. must conclude by 6:30 p.m.

Set-up: Clients may begin set-up no earlier than 9:00 a.m. for events occurring after 5:00 p.m.
