

TRICK OR TREAT HOST

THE ZOO PROVIDES THE CANDY!

Mummies, daddies, ghouls and goblins – all the best people – will be at the Zoo’s spooktacular event, ZooBoo, Saturday, October 21.

Join our most exciting and popular event as the Zoo is transformed into an exciting and safe Halloween alternative for families. More than 8,000 people attend ZooBoo each year! Your participation as a treat station vendor will help put a smile on a child’s face and help the Virginia Zoo accomplish its core missions – education, recreation, conservation and fun.

Speaking of conservation, all of the candy and treats we provide at ZooBoo use sustainable palm oil or are palm oil free. Deforestation from non-sustainable palm oil plantations are destroying critical habitat for orangutans and other species.

The all-day Halloween celebration will run from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. There will also be animal enrichment, the ZooBoo Choo Choo, costume contests, presentations at exhibits and, of course, trick or treat stations provided by area organizations – like yours!

It’s frighteningly easy for you to promote your organization to families in Hampton Roads by participating in ZooBoo, and it’s fun too! The Trick or Treat Station Host Form on the back of this letter has more information on how your organization can be a part of ZooBoo. If you have any other questions, please contact Brittany Coolbaugh at 757-441-2374 ext. 222 or Brittany.Coolbaugh@norfolk.gov. Happy Halloween, see you at ZooBoo!
